

Kia ora from Fresh FM. Here's a quick read of a few of the programmes you'll discover on Fresh FM next week...

FRESH START... Monday-Friday 7.00-9.00am, Interviews 8.00-9.00am. Highlights October 20 Saturday 2.40pm. Monday morning, Mike Williams provides an in-depth report on the local body elections, including the DHB results plus comments from the major players – with analysis. Starts just after the BBC News at 8am. On Tuesday 8.10am Krista Hobday from the TDC, talks to Mike about 'bikers'; Wednesday, 8.10am, Duncan Eddy finds out about the rise of text and cyber bullying with NetSafe Research Manager John Fenaughty; Arch Barkclay sings to Jo Ann Firestone on Thursday at 8.10am; and on Friday from 8.06-9am, we get a Golden Bay focus with hosts, Patrick Steer and Mik Symonds in our Takaka Studio.

VILLAGE THEATRE... October 15, 5.10pm. Replayed October 19 Friday 11.10am. Mik and John with what's on at Takaka's Village Theatre from October 19 to November 2, including details of the upcoming All Shorts Film Festival.

COMMUNITY GROUPS... October 15 Monday 9.40am. Replayed October 17 Wednesday 1.10pm. The Golden Bay Workcentre Trust is an educational and training campus based in Takaka, but it's much more than that! Host Patrick Steer talks with Geoff Rennison, Chair of the GB Workcentre.

SOUNDBITE... October 17 Wednesday 9.40am. Replayed October 20 Saturday 8.40am. Sara McIntyre is producing a reference book for the library about volunteers. Using a template designed in Wellington, Sara talks about the project with producer and host Colleen Marshall.

SIX DEGREES... Oct 18 Thursday 12.06-1pm. Replayed October 20 Saturday 8.00pm. Fresh FM's musical real estate man, Simon Thomas (Summit Real Estate Motueka), explores musical connections on our home turf. This week Simon shares his love of our very own Neil Finn, with music from Crowded House, Bic Runga, David Gilmour and Kirsty MacColl – find out how they're connected and the creations resulting from those connections.

APPLAUSE... October 19 Friday 12.06-1.00pm. Replayed October 21 Sunday 10.06-11.00am. The soundtrack from the motion picture Out of Africa – uninterrupted.

THE WORLD ACCORDING TO GOLDEN BAY... October 19 Friday 4.06-5.00pm. Producer and host, Victoria Davis, discusses why we really do want to know where our food comes from, with Nicola Bashham and Bill Climo talks with Victoria about the pros and cons of a 1080 drop at Farewell Spit – plus a mix of great music to start the weekend.

FRESH FEATURE... October 21 Sunday 4.10pm, October 22 Monday 6.10pm and October 26 Friday 3.10pm. Beginning on Sunday and extending over three weeks, we're very proud to bring you the section winners of the 2007 New Zealand Radio Drama Competition, performed by local actors in front of a live audience. Recorded by John Wansbrough with SFX assistance from Matt Budd, Antony Hodgson and Cynthia Lorrian.

The Nelson Arts Festival is under way. This event brings a cultural feast to the region for a two-week period drawing talent and audiences from across the top of the South and beyond. Take advantage and enjoy!

Have a good week.

Jo Ann Firestone – Programme Director